John Doe2

SEP 22, 1932 - JUL 14, 1998

After years of suffering some bad health problems John Gilbert Doe died and went to be with his Lord on July 14, 1998. Born in Kankakee, IL on September 22, 1932. His family moved to Michigan in 1950 and he lived in Madison Heights over 65 years. Preceded in death by his parents Everet and Gladys Doe and brother Dan. John went to Thomas Jefferson High School where he met his loving wife of sixty years Jane. He Graduated from St. Mary's University where he was president of Tau Delta Sigma fraternity. John served in Korea with the 45th infantry division where he received a purple heart. Home from the war he worked at Straus Frank Co. and then Paul Anderson Co. as an outside sales rep for 28 years. After they closed he and Jane traveled, did volunteer words, and cared for their aging parents. He was a member of Blinded Veterans Association The Low Vision Club and the Tau Delta's Old Timer's Club. John loved photography and was also a great wood worker and gardener. He wants to be remembered as a good friend. John is survived by his loving wife Jane Dow and many beloved friends. Donations in John honor may be made to The Humane Society. We would like to thank our dear friends, and care givers for all the love and support you have given us these past months. You all know who you are.
